BIENERT, MILLER, WEITZEL & KATZMAN, PLC

DEDICATED TO EXCELLENCE IN complex civil litigation and arbitration, white collar criminal matters, bankruptcy and appeals, the lawyers of Bienert, Miller, Weitzel & Katzman, PLC have provided clients with numerous successful jury verdicts, arbitration awards, settlements and appellate decisions.

The firm's partners—Tom Bienert, Ken Miller, Hap Weitzel and Steve Katzman—have a wide breadth of experience, having served as a partner in a large international law firm, the Chief of the Orange County U.S. Attorney's Office and the U.S. Trustee for the Southern and Central Districts of California and Hawaii. We have handled a wide range of corporate issues, including contract and business tort litigation, construction defects and delays, intellectual property disputes, employment litigation, trade secrets litigation, defamation suits, consumer class action litigation, franchise litigation, environmental litigation, insurance coverage disputes, real estate litigation, fiduciary litigation, securities litigation, product liability/mass torts, stock option litigation, antitrust, bankruptcy and FCPA investigations.

Because of our varied backgrounds, we are uniquely prepared to handle complex business cases involving overlapping civil, criminal and bankruptcy issues, as well as internal and governmental investigations. We have favorably tried, appealed and resolved cases involving all manner of business fraud—civil, criminal and bankruptcy—and civil and criminal environmental, securities and RICO cases. Because we are a small trial boutique, our clients receive the hands-on collective experience of our partners.
